THE WHISKY JACK MAY SOON BECOME CANADA'S NATIONAL BIRD

Grey jay beat out common loon, black-capped chickadee, snowy owl and Canada goose in National Bird Project. The whisky jack — also known as the grey jay or the Canada jay — is poised to become our national bird. According to Canadian Geographic, the whisky jack, which can be found in every province and territory, boasts "traits that symbolize the Canadian spirit," including its friendliness and intelligence. They are a tough bird-- thrives in winter, nesting in the harshest, darkest month of the year and has been recorded incubating eggs in snowstorms at temps as cold as -30 C. It has been known for centuries as a companion to Indigenous Peoples, early explorers and outdoor enthusiasts.

THANK YOU

My greatest thank you to the community of Wawota for the many acts of kindness, visits, calls, food, flowers and hugs at the time of Gerry's sudden passing on Oct. 31. I know for sure our move in July to Choo Foo Crescent was the best decision we have made. I am so grateful to be surrounded by love and understanding from the fine people in this town and surrounding area. Marie Clements and Cheryl Branvold you have gone above and beyond in countless ways, I will never forget!
I cannot possibly express how deeply grateful I am to everyone.
Love to all,
Betty Wyatt

A teller at the bank where I work noticed that a drive-in customer was writing something on one of the documents he was going to place in the transaction basket. As she looked at the contents of the basket, she saw "This is robbery!" printed on one of his bills to be paid. She panicked, looked up at the man in the car and asked in a shaky voice, "What do you want?" The customer, realizing the teller's apprehension, began apologizing. "I'm so sorry! That wasn't for you – it's a message for the power company."

A guy drives into a ditch, but luckily, a farmer is there to help. He hitches his horse, Buddy, up to the car and yells, "Pull, Nellie, pull!" Buddy doesn't move.

"Pull, Buster, pull!" Buddy doesn't budge.

"Pull, Coco, pull!" Nothing.

Then the farmer says, "Pull Buddy, pull!" And the horse drags the car out of the ditch.

Curious, the motorist asks the farmer why he kept calling his horse by the wrong name.

"Buddy's blind," said the farmer. "And if he thought he was the only one pulling, he wouldn't even try."

WANDERING THOUGHTS

(as we see them)

As we go to an early cutoff, our weather is looking more normal (temp. anyways) for this time of year. No snow as yet is definitely a bonus. There are reports of flowers still blooming in sheltered areas – a little white daisy at the front door at Grammys!

All our good weather has prompted several residents into putting up their Festive decorations – one day Halloween – next day Christmas! We are anxious to see “light-up” in Centennial Park including the pathway joining the Parks.

The annual (how many years?) Mountney Ladies Flea Market was held last Friday with a smaller crowd than last year organizers tell us. There were 29 vendor tables with a wide variety of products – maybe more home baking this year. We spoke with several vendors – comments on sales varied from fair to excellent. As always, the supper was superb!

The first weekend of the Pink Scarf Express bus tour was deemed a great success. (Reports are of a few “bus gals” even straying over to the Flea Market on Friday). This week, three more bus loads will visit – one Friday and two Saturday. These ladies come with one plan – SHOP & HAVE FUN in rural Saskatchewan!!

On the topic of shopping, many folks will be taking in Black Friday sales this week – we are now seeing “pre-Black Friday” events/sales. We think this whole idea began south of the border, but it surely has expanded to the north! I suppose if you can get into the Festive shopping mood this early(??) - it’s a good idea to seek out the bargains!

We are hearing that Canada is to have a new National Bird – the gray jay (sometimes called the Whisky Jack). As expected, there is some controversy over the choice, however, not unlike our American friends, they are showing some unhappiness about their recently elected/chosen “National Bird”, too!!

We were saddened to read this week that the Redvers Optimist is folding – their last publication will be November 26th – reason given “continued economic conditions”. We especially enjoyed reading the three weekly editorials.

Great news for Regina – and all football fans in general – Regina will host the first ever CFL Week March 20 – 26, 2017! The week-long celebration will involve current and past players in the CFL Combines; a fan expo; players’/coaches’/ clinics and much more. When asked why Regina was chosen to be host to this inaugural event, reasons given were the opening of a brand new stadium and the home of the most dedicated and compassionate fans in the whole league – Saskatchewan seemed to be the “perfect fit”.

In closing – guess what? Yes, we found #7 fowl supper on Sunday in Carlyle – sponsored by the local Catholic Church – and again rating right up there with the other six!

Gingerbread Cookie Recipe

2/3 cup vegetable oil
1 cup white sugar
1 egg, beaten
1/4 cup molasses
2 cups flour
2 tsp baking soda
1 1/2 tsp. ground ginger
1/2 tsp salt
1 1/2 tsp cinnamon
Granulated sugar

Preheat oven to 350°F. Blend oil and sugar. Add egg and beat until fluffy. Stir in molasses. Sift dry ingredients and stir into mixture. Roll small balls of dough and dip in granulated sugar – or roll out onto floured board and cut into shapes and sprinkle sugar on.

Place in ungreased cookie sheet, leaving spaces between cookies. Flatten balls slightly. Bake 12 – 15 minutes. Cool. Yield 5 dozen.

THE RC LEGION BUGLE ...

14 days ago we met in the Town Hall to pay tribute and our respects to those who had given the supreme sacrifice in the service of their country. We need ask ourselves, "I am living my life worthy of the privileges they bought for me?" Is not one of those privileges the right to speak up and voice your opinion when you see an injustice?

Whatever your stand regarding the RBC closure – speak up, sign up, etc., let your voice be heard! It is not going to cost anything to try.

Membership: the December meeting is set for Dec. 7 at 6 p.m. We will satisfy our appetites before the business meeting, (or vice-versa??)

CLOVERDALE PAINT IS COMING!

We have been busy clearing our General Paint inventory to make room for our new Cloverdale Paint line and the day will soon be here!

We will have our new Cloverdale Paint on our shelves on Friday, December 2, 2016 and will be introducing it with BIG discounts!!! Come in and have a look!

A blond man shouts frantically into the phone, "My wife is pregnant and her contractions are only two minutes apart!"

"Is this her first child?" asks the Doctor.

"No!" he shouts, "this is her husband!"

OH NO – CAN'T BE TRUE !

We were unable to watch the Division finals of the CFL on Sunday – so when we were advised on the results, we went for a second opinion.

Thank goodness we received a few dollars on the Forum Pool – makes the “bad luck” on the other wager a little easier to take – I guess.

One last “ray of hope” – we get to pick the winner of the Grey Cup – and we’re taking the Stampeders – they are the favourite choice you know!

My doctor asked me if any of my family members suffered from insanity.
I told him “No, we all enjoy it.”

What's new @ the Emporium ...

We had a great week-end with the Bus Ladies last Friday & Saturday. They are always astonished by our quaint little rural stores ... we love showing them a good time.

Thanks to Phil Weatherald for donating some lovely handmade pins for me to give my ladies ... they loved them.

All of our Christmas trees are up and decorated to the hilt. Come in and shop now for that unique decoration.

Saturday, November 26th, one of my new consigners will be here with her String Art. Dandy Wee Strings from Brandon will be in the back room... her art is sometime to see. Come check it out.

Ongoing sales until January ... new deals all the time.

Good Luck to all Agribition attendees.

The Flyers travelled to Redvers on the 18th coming home with a 5-4 loss. The next night, they again headed south – this time to visit the Carnduff Red Devils – and once again one goal (6-5) wasn't to be in favor of the Flyers.

We are told that in both games the Flyers had the lead well into the game, only to have it disappear by the final whistle.

The next action for the Flyers happens on the 30th when they are in Oxbow. Next home game is December 3rd when Yellow Grass comes to the Forum.

I was with a friend in a café when a noisy car alarm interrupted our conversation. "What good are car alarms when no one pays any attention to them?" I wondered aloud. "Some are quite effective," my friend corrected me. "Last summer, my teenager spent a lot of time at the neighbors'. Whenever I wanted him home, I'd go out to our driveway and jostle his car."
