SIX MORE WEEKS OF WINTER ??

What did Thursday, February 2nd bring? Sunshine or cloudy skies? If the groundhog saw his Shadow, can we expect 6 more weeks of cold weather and snow? Or did the strong cold winds scare him back into his burrow? Whatever the prediction, we are quite confident there will be a few more weeks of winter weather. What do you think we "Saskatchewan-ites" can expect???

And speaking of Winter ... we decided to take a tour of the Town to snap a few photos. It is getting more difficult with each snowfall for the Town Maintenance Men to find a spot to dump the snow!!

The Canada Flag peeks out from the snowbanks on the corner of Railway & Main.

We hope the Murray family do not want to use this car till spring!

A resident walking past the Car Wash is dwarfed by the snowbanks.

Those residing in the low rental units on Railway Avenue, we are sure will prefer to use their back doors to get out.

At the corner of Railway & Hall does this sign mean 8 tons of snow are piled up here??

A "wall" of snow as you drive into town from Hwy #48 turning onto 1st Avenue

WANDERING THOUGHTS

(as we see them)

Well, we're about almost back to normal – at least as normal as our life gets! We even managed to work in a couple of music gigs last week – and after over a month's "time-out", the right notes outnumbered the "sour" ones – maybe that's unusual! Perhaps some practice would have been in order – but we have heard that "practice makes perfect" and we would never want to be in that category!

We read an article on the average lifespan in Canada and the changes involved - Statistics show that the average lifespan in 1980 was 75 years compared to 81 in 2010. People relying on their retirement pensions are finding that Canada Pension and Old Age Security barely are enough to "get by on" anymore. This is no doubt one reason we're seeing many retirees taking on part-time work – and/or continuing to work well after the "once age 65 year" number. Travel, hobbies and a general change in lifestyle are taking more of our "nest egg".

How about this weather – just unbelievable! A comment on "coffee row" recently was "we're over the worst now", which instantly brought the comment – "we're not in March yet". However, it is a fact that some people just know how and when to pick good weather suitable for the "agenda". And the sunsets! Mother Nature – you do marvellous work!

On our weekly "paper trail" we are seeing several dead deer along the roadways. Is it the amount of snow or the crust on the snow that is bringing them out in search of food? It's not uncommon to see 2 – 5 or more walking down the Town streets. There are warnings not to put feed out for them as it could do more harm than good – digestion of certain feed causing problems. Also on our last week's "paper trail" we came upon three prairie chickens along the road – a first for a year or so – although a fellow "coffee rower" who works in the rural tells us he sees several in his work.

One good thing the cold weather did was make ice thick enough to let the "fisher-people" try their luck. A couple of locals visited a man-made lake to the west and had a great catch – ranging in weight from 4 – 14 pounds! And yes, they shared – and no, we didn't reveal the spot – thank you!

More depressing news – our country "rang up" a 12.7 billion dollar deficit in the first eight months of the 2016-17 fiscal year in comparison to $1 billion in the same period a year earlier – a "trend" not to be proud of!

While vacationing in the South we noticed a publication in a golf pro shop entitled "Three Minutes" – a very interesting little paper with lots of golf tips for "those-in-need". (Hope permission was granted for the name – our "nasty" for the week!)

Someone purchased an amaryllis bulb at the Mountney Ladies' Flea Market in mid-November with the plan to give it as a Christmas gift. Good idea – yes – however in all the prep in getting ready to go on vacation in mid-December, it got filed to a "back-burner". Upon discovery of same again, examination showed two green sprouts seeking the light. Too late for gift giving, we potted the bulb and "farmed it out" to a dear neighbour 'til our return. During our absence, one stem produced four large blooms – the other has five on its homecoming – and no leaves!

Some real estate changes in the last month – both of our local agents have gone to new companies – Leanne starting Red Roof Realty and Carmen to Royal LePage Premier Realty. We wish them both good luck in their new positions. (We were happy to return home to find no 'FOR SALE/RENT' signs at 109 Pipestone Avenue as was the case last August!)

Ending off with some exciting news – the Moosomin Community Band will be performing a concert in our Town sometime in April – keep tuned for the date and location.

Warning:
Dates on Calendars are closer than they appear.

All I want is a chance to prove that money means nothing to me.

A local farmer asks his teenage son to go to Chimo Lumber and to buy some 4 x 2's. When the young lad gets to the store he is told that they have lots of 2 x 4's but not 4 x 2's. "I'd better check with my Dad." says the son. After listening to the story, the father says, "Go ahead and get the 2 x 4's and when you get them home, we can turn them around".

IT'S SO COLD ...

- * Tim Hortons was serving coffee on a stick.
- * A stalker froze in mid-streak – Town Council just put a plaque on him and pretended he was a Greek statue until spring.
- * People with traffic tickets would plead guilty and beg for the electric chair.
- * Rats were bribing the alley cats for a snuggle.
- * Had to chop up the piano for firewood – but only got two Chords.
- * Pickpockets were sticking their hands in strangers' pockets just to keep them warm.
- * Students say their grades seemed to be improving at school - when you apply the wind chill factor, a 57% looks like 93%!
- * Hitchhikers were showing photos of their thumbs.
- * The cows outside threatened to strike unless they got bras to cover their udders.
- * Politicians have their hands in their own pockets.
- * When someone spilled hot coffee on me, I thanked them.
- * A group of chickens walked into a KFC asking to warm up.
- * I can't even get into a heated argument with my wife.
- * Grandpa's teeth were chattering in the glass.
- * We had to stop eating with metal cutlery. Some people walked around for days with spoons or forks stuck to their tongues!

CAN YOU BELIEVE ...

- February 2017 will have an oddity that only happens every 800 or so years – there are four of each day – four Sundays, four Mondays, etc.
- With all the snow – and good weather, the lack of snowmobilers.
- Only 107 days 'til the first market at the Red Market Barn
- Remember the song "Give Me A Daisy A Day Dear"? – Well, could our American friends soon be changing the words to "Give Me An Executive Order A Day Trump?"
- That an oil leak has happened in the area.
- Looking forward to "exchanging" notes with friends returning from California this week.

Even though there are days I wish I could change some things that happened in the past, there's a reason the rear view mirror is so small and the windshield is so big, where you're headed is much more important than what you left behind.

Timid Tom went to the box office at Mosaic Stadium and bought a ticket to a Riders game. He came back a few minutes later and bought another ticket.

The clerk said, "Why are you here again?"

"I had no choice," he said,

"the man at the gate tore the last one in half."
