WANDERING THOUGHTS (as we see them)

Well, here we are back to a normal week – whatever that is! The one thing we know for sure is that there will be seven days – what each brings is anyone’s guess! Isn’t it a good thing that we don’t know what lies ahead?

How have you handled the past several days of heat and smoke haze? With temps reaching on-or-about the 40°C mark and not cooling some nights to less than 20°, there isn’t much time to cool! Remembering back when we were on the farm (40 years ago plus), stacking square hay bales by hand would be a common thing to be doing in this type of weather. Now, we hear – or look – at the temp and begin to “wilt” immediately – BIRTHDAYS??

Last February 27-28 when the power was off for almost ten hours, it was cold outdoors (too) with a wind. There was concern beginning – just think – if only we could have had a few of the degrees we are experiencing now back then – the example of extremes!

The heat has sure made lawn mowing less of a task – flowers continue to be showy – thanks to watering. Morning glories on the west side of the residence at 215 Lonsdale are extremely eye-catching. Also lilies (calla, we think) “jump out” at you in a few locations – red, pink and yellow. Some of the petunia displays are gorgeous – containers full and overflowing. The zinnias at 304 Lonsdale are again amazing – all flowers are great!

As this column is being prepared, we are “pie-watching” also – at 3:30 p.m. the temp in our kitchen is 30.6° - time out (literally). WOW – STOP THE PRESS – Monday a.m. – kitchen temp 21° - outside 13° - a variation or what? What a difference a day makes – think we’ll make it for a few more days!

On the topic of food, we hear that there was a new item available at the Regina Ex this year – grilled cheese & crickets! Think we’ll just listen to the crickets and not taste them!

We’re hearing of break-ins/robberies in the area recently – a reminder to keep all properties locked and don’t leave keys in vehicles – this may not prevent a theft but there’s no sense in encouraging and making it easy for them either.

Although we complain about the high temperatures, we are fortunate not to have to deal with the fire situations they are experiencing in British Columbia where they have declared a province-wide state of emergency as hundreds of wildfires burn. The word is that smoke from these fires is going to be drifting east – Alberta is already experiencing high smoke levels and it is supposed to drift into Saskatchewan this week and even into Manitoba.

Friendship is the only cement that will ever hold the world together.

RTR REPORT

Definition of "Hot" – having much heat; full of great interest, very eager - & more!

We're not sure which meaning members and friends of the RTR folks took on Saturday (when the outside temp was 35°C).

Nonetheless, they made and BAKED 200 pies in 10 kinds – from 9:45 am to 5:30 pm.

The inventory that wasn't sold before it left town, found its way to the Red Market Barn once again – 138 pies with only 22 coming home! 98 jars of jams/jellies/relish found new homes as well as 5 BBQ scrapers.

Our next scheduled date is September 1st when we'll be at the Wilson Threshing Day serving lunch (including pie, if course).

Once again, a huge thanks to everyone who help us in so many ways – prep work, supplies, cooks, "go-fers", deliveries and last, but not least, to those who purchase our "results" – you're all special – and a simple appreciation doesn't seem to fully cover how we feel! You've all been a great part in or project's success!

A recent study has found that women who carry a little extra weight live longer than the men who mention it.

VISITORS TO OUR TOWN

“Scoop” is at it again! On Friday the 10th, we happened to meet an interesting traveler at the Post Office. Brian Nadon from Calgary is cycling across Canada bringing awareness of PTSD (post-traumatic stress disorder) to the public. Brian is the founder and director of Vatic Foundation – (Value – Achieve – Take Part – Inspire – Community).

It is a program set up to help people suffering from this ailment, i.e. education, scholarships. Peace keepers, soldiers, medical responders, etc. are commonly affected once they return to civilian life.

Brian is accompanied by his 6-year-old canine friend, Ginger. He has a child carrier attached to his bike for Ginger. Sometimes the carrier is used and sometimes Ginger runs along with Brian.

The trek began in Charlottetown, PEI on May 24th – plans are to be in Victoria, BC by mid-September.

The duo planned to stay overnight in our Centennial Park.

Asked why he chose this route to travel – Brian’s reply, “The main highways (#1, etc.) are just too busy – and besides I get to see the “more rural side” of our country”.

For more information, Brian’s website is www.vaticfoundation.com.

Recipe of the Month

Pickled Zucchini

- 1 cup white vinegar
- 1/3 cup granulated sugar
- 1/4 tsp salt
- 1 Tbsp chopped dill
- 3 zucchini, cut into 1/4" rounds
- 1/2 red onion, thinly sliced

Boil vinegar with sugar and salt in a small saucepan. Stir in dill. Cool slightly.

Firmly pack zucchini and red onion into 250 ml Mason jars. Pour in vinegar mixture. Cover with lids and refrigerate for at least 12 hours.

One day a little girl was sitting and watching her mother do the dishes at the kitchen sink. She suddenly noticed that her mother had several strands of white hair sticking out in contrast on her brunette head. She looked at her mother and inquisitively asked, “Why are some of your hairs white, Mom?” Her mother replied, “Well, every time that you do something wrong and make me cry or unhappy, one of my hairs turns white.” The little girl thought about this revelation for awhile and then said, “Momma, how come ALL of grandma’s hairs are white?”

RED MARKET BARN REPORT

It was a HOT market at the Red Barn last Sunday – and we’re not necessarily talking about sales! There were a few empty spots with the possibility of perhaps the temperature. Management advised everyone to “close-up-shop” around 3:30 p.m. for safety reasons – this could be a first.

Barn Boss was fortunate to find an antique pitcher made in the 1800s – she told us that it would add nicely to her collection of “relics” – (‘nuff said).

The attendance was possibly down a little also because of the heat, however a couple of avid dancers did a “couple of turns” to the music of Southern Country.

Wringing your hands only stops you from rolling up your sleeves.

THANK YOU

To the mystery person/persons who placed three musician frogs in my flower garden sometime last week – one is playing a violin, one a guitar & the other we're not sure. And guess what – there are none the same in our collection of how many – we "guesstimate" 250-300!!

Man driving down road.
Woman driving up same road.
They pass each other.
Woman yells out window PIG !
Man yells out window B - - CH !
Man rounds next curve.
Man crashes into a Huge Pig in the middle of the road and dies.

Thought for the day:

What should not be heard by little ears
 should not be said by big mouths.

60 YEARS AGO

- Did you hear the Post Office is thinking about charging 7¢ just to mail a letter?
- If they raise the minimum wage to $1.00, nobody will be able to hire outside help at the store.
- If they think I’ll pay 30¢ for a haircut, forget it.
- The fast food restaurant is convenient for a quick meal, but I seriously doubt they will ever catch on.
- There is no sense going on short trips any more for a weekend. It costs nearly $2.00 a night to stay in a hotel.
- No one can afford to be sick anymore. At $15.00 a day in the hospital, it’s too rich for my blood.
- It won’t be long before young couples are going to have to hire someone to watch their kids so they can both work.
- I never thought I’d see the day all our kitchen appliances would be electric. They’re even making electric typewriters now.
- When I first started driving, who would have thought gas would someday cost 25¢/gallon. Guess we’d be better off leaving the car in the garage.
- Thank goodness I won’t live to see the day when the Government takes half our income in taxes. I sometimes wonder if we are electing the best people to government.
